2d.

In cases where the Mohamedan Law leaves the prisoner liable to discretionary punishment, the Futwa to declare such generally, leaving the measure of punishment to be determined by the Judge of Circuit, or by the Court of Nizamut Adawlut.

c. 2d.

If the Crime shall have been specifically provided for by any Regulation, Sentence to be passed conformably thereto, should the Prisoner be convicted, either by voluntary confession, evidence of Witnesses, or strong circumstantial evidence; or if the case be referrible to the Nizamut Adawlut, the Judge shall transmit the trial with his opinion thereon.

c. 3d.

If the Crime be not specifically provided for by any Regulation, but such as would subject the Prisoner to a sentence of Hudd or Kissass by Mohamedan law, if convicted on legal evidence, and the Futwa shall declare the Prisoner liable to discretionary punishment in consequence of the evidence not being such as is required by the Mohamedan law, though sufficient to convict the Prisoner on strong presumptive proof, the Judge shall require a second Futwa, declaring what specific punishment the Prisoner would have been liable to, if convicted upon full legal evidence, and shall pass Sentence according to such

The following Sections enacted to define the powers of single Judges of the Court of Circuit at the sudder station.

12th. C. 1st

Whenever, from indisposition or absence of any of the Judges of Circuit, or from vacancies in those Courts or other cause, the Sitting of the Court of Circuit at the sudder station cannot be held before two Judges, it shall be competent to a single Judge to hold the Sitting of the Court and to call for the proceedings of a Zillah or City Magistrate, or Joint or Assistant Magistrate, in cases where it may appear requisite; also to execute all sentences and orders received from the Court of Nizainut Adawlut, and to pass orders in conformity with the Regulations in all matters cognizable by the Courts of Circuit at the sudder station, subject to the following provisions.

C. 2d.

A single Judge at the sudder station not to revise or alter a decision of a Magistrate, or Joint or Assistant Magistrate, without the concurrence of another Judge of Circuit.

C. 3d.

A single Judge of Circuit not to reverse or alter a decision which

	C. 11th.	No Judge of Circuit to take cognizance of appeals against any decision or order passed by himself in capacity of Magistrate or Joint or Assistant Magistrate, or in any other capacity.
	C. 6th.	In cases referred to the Court of Circuit, at the sudder station by a Judge of Circuit holding a Jail-delivery in pursuance of Section 22, Regulation 9, 1807, or any other Regulation authorizing a reference to the Court of Circuit at the sudder station by the Judge of Circuit, if there be only one Judge at the sudder station, or if the case shall come before a single Judge under the provision made by Clause 1 of this Section, and such Judge shall concur in opinion with the Judge making the reference, he shall be competent to pass a final order in conformity with their joint opinion and the Regulations. But if the Judge at the sudder station should differ in opinion from the Judge making the reference, he shall record his opinion and the question shall be over, till the opinion of a third Judge can be obtained.
